

Become a Member of the Women's Network of the Red River Valley

The Women's Network of the Red River Valley works to empower women and girls and organizes for social justice.

We invite you to share in our vision of a diverse community of feminists that honors women and girls and promotes equality and reproductive freedom.

Paid Membership in the Women's Network of the Red River Valley entitles you to:

- Regular copies of and the ability to contribute to the Network's quarterly newsletter with up-to-date information and events for women
- Serve on Network Committees and enhance your leadership skills
- Eligibility to become a Board member of the Network
- Voting privileges for Board elections and bylaw changes
- Advance invitations to all Network activities
- Special discounts on Network events and products

Please join us in empowering women and girls in our community and become a member today. Individual and organizational memberships are available. Membership dues are assessed annually based on the ability to pay.

The Women's Network of the Red River Valley is funded through grants and the support of members of the community. Without you and your donations, the Women's Network of the Red River Valley would not exist. Please help us to keep our Network strong!
